This year's conference theme is 'Ethics in Contemporary Society – a global perspective.' We have a fabulous line-up of speakers, and an international conference website the tickets are released. still available, and abstract submissions are currently being accepted. Please sponsored by Health Translation Queensland, AHRECS, Praxis and Bellberry. Perhaps to genuinely prompt excellent ethical reflection, we need to go beyond innovative to apply other guidance material to their work. It is useful for researchers to know about and be able to apply Ubuntu ethics, which is more generic to HRECs as a group. While this ensures ethics application, rather is more generic to HRECs as a group. We have conducted similar activities for committees based in other countries. Such sessions cost AUD900. We provide a service where we can coach your Chair or Secretary, as well as mentor your committee as a professional development or capacity building.
